

FOODDIVINE BIOGRAPHY

Fooddivines mission came from an aspiration to provide brands in the food and drink industry images of excellence that are richly deserved. Based in Montréal, FoodDivine has a 2300 sq. ft studio with a fully equipped kitchen convenient for food and product photography assignments.

Ali Rahimi, who defines founder and principle photographer, works with creative food stylist and CG artist. Understanding his clients brand he captures the desired images.

Ali and his Foodivine team have gained international acclaim for their food and drink photography. He is proud to have worked with friends such as Nespresso, Excellence Chocolate, Trois Brasseurs, Jessica Pastries, Copper Banch and Bijoux Wine.
